

Jane C. Schleichter

ATTORNEY

PRACTICE AREAS:

Municipal Creditors' Rights

Education

Undergrad: Lehigh University, B.A., 1998, English, minors in Psychology and Education, member of the Sigma
Tau Delta English Honor Society

Law School: Widener University School of Law, J.D., 2001

Courts Admitted

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Commonwealth of New Jersey

The United States District Court:
Eastern District of Pennsylvania

The United States District Court:
New Jersey

Professional Affiliations

American Bar Association

A member of the firm's Municipal Creditor's Rights Group, Jane's primary focus involves the collection of delinquent taxes on behalf of the City and School District of Philadelphia.

Jane has extensive experience in handling the collection of delinquent real estate taxes, as she has done so on behalf of the City of Philadelphia and for a bank trustee since 2006. She works directly with the City's individual taxpayers, as well as private and public corporations and non-profit entities, to resolve delinquent tax matters. Jane has also represented a secured creditor pursuing collection of delinquent real estate taxes in bankruptcy proceedings. She has supervised and litigated these bankruptcy cases filed within the United States Bankruptcy Courts.

Philadelphia Office

1425 Spruce Street, Suite 100
Philadelphia, PA 19102

(215) 735-1910

jschleichter@grblaw.com

www.grblaw.com